U.S. law requires that, if hired, you must furnish your choice of appropriate documentation establishing identify and employment eligibility, generally within 72 hours of starting work. Please consult a member of the management team to see a copy of the DHS Form I-9 for a complete list of acceptable documents.

Maryland Employment Only:

I understand that under Maryland law, an employer may not require or demand, as a condition of employment, prospective employment, or continued employment, that an individual submit to or take a polygraph or similar test. An employer who violates this law is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine not exceeding $100.

Massachusetts Employment Only:

It is unlawful in Massachusetts to require or administer a lie detector test as a condition of employment or continued employment. An employer who violates this law shall be subject to criminal penalties and civil liabilities.

If you are applying for employment in any of the following places, do not answer the questions below about criminal background or sex offender registration:

- | | | | |
|--------------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------------|
| • State of California | • State of New Jersey | • City of Baltimore, MD | • City of Washington, D.C. |
| • State of Connecticut | • State of Oregon | • City of Buffalo, NY | • Montgomery County, MD |
| • State of Hawaii | • State of Rhode Island | • City of Columbia, MO | • Prince George's- County, MD |
| • State of Illinois | • State of Vermont | • City of Kansas City, MO | • Westchester County, NY |
| • State of Massachusetts | • State of Washington | • City of Philadelphia, PA | • U.S. Virgin Islands |
| • State of Minnesota | • City of Austin, TX | • City of Rochester, NY | |

In all other locations, please read before answering the next two questions:

Madison, Wisconsin Employment Only: You may exclude offenses that are more than three years from the date of (i) the placement on probation; (ii) parole; (iii) release from incarceration; (iv) or payment of a fine.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania: You may exclude convictions that occurred more than 7 years from the date of the inquiry. Any period of incarceration should not be included in the calculation of the 7-year period.

Answering yes will not necessarily bar you from employment. This information will only be used for job-related purposes consistent with applicable law and is only relevant in determining whether the conviction is related to the job for which you are applying for. Factors such as age at the time of the offense(s), recentness of the offense(s), seriousness of the offense(s), nature of the violation(s), its relation, if any, to the job you are seeking, and rehabilitation will be taken into account. Failure to honestly answer these questions will result in discontinued consideration of your application or termination of employment. Do not report any convictions that has been sealed, expunged, statutorily eradicated, vacated, annulled, impounded, erased, nullified, dismissed, dismissed under a first offenders' law, pardoned by the Governor, or which state allows you to lawfully deny. Do not report a record of any arrest, detention, process, diversion, supervision, adjudication, or court disposition that was subject to the process and jurisdiction of a juvenile court. You also are not required to disclose violations, infractions, or summary offenses.
